LL.M. International Business Law

— PARIS —

This programme deals mainly with practical case studies and certain key subjects, with a pluridisciplinary focus. It prepares students and professionals for operations such as large acquisitions or market transactions, cross border mergers, complex financing, restructuring, LBOs, financial engineering, and industrial projects. These are interesting operations, offering difficulties that often lead to innovative solution seeking. It is particularly educational to study them and analyze the legal, financial or accounting issues raised. Thus, contracts, guarantees, financing and international trade litigation, among other basic subjects, can be studied from different angles.

Gabriella GRISOLIA

Paris campus 2020-2021

"I chose this programme because it offered a wide variety of modules all of which hold an important part within a business, it presents them from an international point of view allowing students from all over the world to benefit from the knowledge imparted by the teachers. Lastly, as a Dominican lawyer focusing on corporate law and working with many international firms, graduating from the LL.M. has enabled me to comprehend the world of business law on an international plane and apply this new knowledge on the cases we see each day at the office."

Jean Sebastian SAAVEDRA

Paris campus 2018-2019

"Currently, I'm an associate at FCA Law Firm, one of the most traditional firms in Paraguay. Established in 1981, we participate in the most important transactions held in Paraguay, advising local and multinational companies. The programme is specifically designed to meet all the needs of an attorney seeking to focus his career on international business law. Likewise, the LL.M. allows you to interact with leading lawyers in their respective areas, which is a true privilege and a unique opportunity to deepen your knowledge. Additionally, being a student at one of the most traditional universities of France and Europe is a true privilege and a distinction in the career of each student."

Isabelle ZANZER

"Given my business and law background, an LL.M. in International business law opened many doors in both the business and legal field. In addition, I had the opportunity to meet many people participating in the program from all over the world. I soon learned that networking is equally valuable to the knowledge gained at the university. A big part in getting hired was due to my educational background, especially an LL.M. from Sorbonne-Assas International Law School. The name Sorbonne holds great value globally, which gave me a competitive advantage in the recruitment processes."
